BIO

Megan began dancing at the age of 5 at LA Dance Studio Center on Long Island New York. Throughout her years of dance, she has studied Ballet, Lyrical, Contemporary, Modern, Jazz, Tap, and HipHop. Megan began choreographing in high school, dancing alongside and teaching her peers jazz and lyrical. She danced with and captained her high school Kickline team for three years. Megan attended college at SUNY Potsdam where she earned congruent bachelor's degrees in modern dance and business administration. While at college Megan attended the White Mountain Dance Intensive, the American Dance Festival, and was involved in numerous student, faculty, and visiting faculty dance pieces. After college Megan continued her love of dance through teaching, continued training and performance with Praevado Dance Company and Wellbeing Dance. Megan is so happy to share her love of dance at Tiffany's School of Dance and Performing Arts Center.
